

CHAMBERS TAKES THE STAND IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

OFFICE, 284 WASHINGTON AVENUE.

Explains That He Thought He Was Entitled to All the Money and Councilman Nye Said He Should Have Had More—Other Cases Are Begun.

Fred Chambers took the stand yesterday in his own defense and with the conclusion of his cross-examination the case was continued until Monday.

The court then called on the case of Skene vs. William Craig and A. H. Moyes. Eight jurors were finally called to the jury box, after which the case was continued to follow the order after the close of the Chambers case, which will probably occupy three days more. When the actions against Craig and Moyes were called, the usual motions to strike out and demurrers were offered, and were denied by the court, who followed along the rulings in the Chambers case.

The first witness called yesterday morning was the defendant, Fred Chambers, who testified to the good standing of the accused in the community in which he resides.

Mr. Nye was then recalled to be cross-examined. The questions asked by the attorneys for the prosecution centered around the point that two distinct appropriations had been made by the city council to cover the same work, as appeared on the minutes of the council.

Mr. Nye for an Appropriation.

During the examination the witness remarked that the appropriations made for special services were less than a regular $3 per diem would have entitled the councilmen to the same as the council members of committees did not demand all that they were entitled to, and replied that the matter was discussed at council meetings. It was then agreed that each member should prepare an itemized statement of the kind of work done, and this was done, and owing to the great variety of work that was done in this way and the many special committees appointed, there was a wide divergence in the statements submitted. For this reason some of the councilmen refused to present their bills, and the afterwards agreed to allow each member $100 for his services, which totaled considerably less than the aggregate of the individual statements. As to increasing the regular salary by ordinance, the witness stated that the council could not agree. He also testified that Mr. Chambers had served on several committees during 1905 and 1906 more than double the amount allowed.

Chambers on the Stand.

Later Mr. Nye was recalled to the stand and asked if the mayor and the city engineer had received remuneration for their services, the same as the councilmen, they have also been connected with one of the committees appointed to investigate the matter. He replied that he did not think so. The contention of the plaintiff is that the officers above named would have been more entitled to pay than the councilmen, as it was entirely out of their line of duty. Fred W. Chambers, who was then called to the stand to testify in his own behalf, and said that the question of extra compensation arose in 1903 on account of the many improvements that were then being made. It was found that in order to transact the large amount of business these improvements involved the councilmen would be compelled to leave their regular employment and it was then agreed that they should have extra compensation. The mayor, he said, appeared before the council in the fall of 1903 and he was in favor of making a special appropriation, and considered $3.00 per day to be a fair remuneration. A motion was made to have the matter and finding that this was customary in other cities, the mayor approved the appropriation of $3.00 per day to cover the year 1903 and 1904.

The witness said that several members of a former council had been paid one time been sent to St. Louis as a special waterworks committee, and were allowed, not only their expenses, but were granted an extra compensation. He stated that in 1902 he had served on one special committee, for the year 1902 and 1903, and in 1904, on fourteen boards. In 1905, he said, he served on a committee for the inspection of improvements.

Denied Cold Feet Story.

Mr. Chambers was put under a severe cross-examination by Attorney J. C. Kimball, which lasted for one and one half hours. He denied that the other councilmen had been paid more than he had, and that he had cold feet as claimed by the prosecution, but practically admitted all that was alleged in the case. He stated that he had sold the waterworks property on Aug. 11, 1904, to Councilman J. C. Nye. He was then asked if he did not know that there was a motion made at the time that he did not know, and he replied that he did not know. One of the most important admissions made by him was that he was that he did not serve on the board of equalization and review during 1905, but claimed that he had rendered services to a committee of the board of equalization and review during 1905, and that he had accepted the money for services on the board of equalization and review after the money had been collected and that he, a short time thereafter, returned the money to the city treasurer. He was then asked if he had any intent to defraud when he accepted the warrants, and he said that at no time had he felt that he was doing wrong under the advice he had received. This referred to the advice he had received from the mayor.

His Visit to Skene.

In response to a question as to why he had gone to the office of Attorney J. D. Skene, the accused, on the night of Feb. 9, and said that he was much concerned about the suit pending, and that he considered that he and Skene were good friends, both being engaged in church and Sunday school work together. He thought that he thought he could go and talk to him as brother to brother. He said further that he was desirous of knowing why Skene should sign him out and hold him up to public ridicule as he had never done him any injury. He claimed that Skene said that he had been driven to take the action by the newspapers and in stating what particular newspaper he said the Standard of Ogden. This paper is managed by ex-Mayor William Glasman.

He admitted asking Skene if he could consistently put a suit to the prosecution, but Skene said he wished he could bury and forget the whole affair, but that he would have to investigate. They then brought up the question of special boards in the council and if it was considered necessary for all or only part of the committee to sign the report and witness replied that it seemed to be the rule for only a majority to sign them. They then switched the question to the fact if Skene had referred during the interview mentioned had referred to his enemy for ex-Mayor William Glasman, and witness replied that he did not even mention Glasman's name, but merely referred to the Standard. Chambers had admitted having some difficulty with the proprietor of the Standard (meaning Glasman) regarding some business difficulties pertaining to the Weber county fair association.

Memory Suddenly Fails.

In referring further to the interview between the accused and the defendant witness was asked if he did not know that actions had also been brought against Craig and Moyes. Witness' mind failed here, and he did not know whether he had known of this fact or not. Persisting, counsel asked Chambers why he did not know, and he replied upon which he was employed had heralded the publication of the filing of the actions in the evening before that time. Witness then sprang a new one and said that he understood the other suits had been called off and that he came to this understanding from what had been told to him by his attorneys. He failed to recollect having stated that the property in this way and the clerk about not cashing his warrant and had accused him of having "cold feet." He remembered, however, that he had received a message of ex-Mayor Glasman, referring to the "carping critics finding fault with the appropriations of the council," and admitted that the message had been sent to the council not later than January 10, of this year.

This was the case for the day and a continuance was taken until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

TWO NEW SCHOOL HOUSES.

County Board Decides in Favor of Hooper and Plain City.

The county board of education yesterday decided to erect two new four-room buildings, one at Hooper and one at Plain City, providing the people of those districts will donate properly located sites for the new structures. In case the buildings are erected, as now seems probable, a tax levy of 10 mills will be levied to cover the cost of the structures, which will be in the neighborhood of $3,000 each. The board of education was instructed to furnish the tract officer with a list of pupils out of schools, in order that he might take the necessary action. In regard to the renting of the schools for religious purposes it was stated that some injury had been done to the property in the past, and the board was instructed to call the attention of the different bishops to the requirements laid down by the board.

GAMBLERS GIVEN A TIP.

Intended Raid of Police Causes Them to Close Doors.

Immediately following the report given out yesterday to the effect that the gambling houses of Ogden had commenced to do business behind closed doors, the police department was alerted and a raid on the different gambling halls for last evening. In some unaccountable way it is believed that the raid was word of the officers' raid was given out shortly after 7 o'clock last evening. Learning of the gamblers' action the raid was postponed.

KICKED BY HORSE: MAY DIE

Edward Noble Lying at Point of Death as Result of Attack by Stallion.

Edward Noble, aged about 21, was kicked in the face by a stallion in J. J. Lett's livery stable shortly after midnight this morning. He was rendered unconscious and was taken to the Ogden general hospital. It is thought he will die.

Fish Culture Profitable.

Joseph Barker, who has a large fish hatchery in Ogden valley, today received a shipment of 11,000 eastern brook trout in a short while expects to receive another shipment of 11,000. In all about 1,000 trout have been ordered by those who are engaged in the business in the valley. As to the outcome of his project Mr. Barker is extremely optimistic, and says that within a few years the business will be an extremely profitable one in this county, and a great source of wealth.

McGriff Fruit Company.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the McGriff Fruit company of North Ogden, with a capital stock of $12,600, divided into shares of a par value of $100 each. The concern is incorporated for a period of fifty years and for the purpose of doing a general fruit growing, packing and shipping business. The officers of the new company are: President, J. McGriff; vice president, J. W. Campbell; secretary and treasurer, James Storer.

Burial of Riley Harrop.

Funeral services over the remains of Riley Harrop will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Lynde ward meeting house. The remains may be viewed between the hours of 10 and 1 o'clock at the residence of the parents of the deceased, 425 Washington avenue. The Veterans' department will attend the services in a body.

Ogden Briefs.

Attorney N. J. Harris filed in the district court yesterday a complaint for Patience Ronwell vs. Harry J. Stone, in an action to quiet title to land in Weber county.

The postal department and the officials of the Ogden Union depot have received notices regarding the reweighing of the United States mail. This work will be commenced on Tuesday night and continued until further notice.

Petition for letters of administration was filed in the district court yesterday by Cecelia Isborn, in the matter of the estate of Anna Isborn, who died intestate Feb. 4, 1906. The estate consists of three acres of land in Weber county of a probable value of $400.

Fred Lowe, 18 years of age, one of the pupils at the deaf and dumb school, while working in the carpenter shop yesterday had one finger of his left hand partially severed by contact with a piece of wood. The injury was dressed by Dr. J. A. Becker.

SUTHERLAND'S BUSY DAY IN WASHINGTON

(Special to The Herald.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—Senator Sutherland today recommended to the postoffice department that rural delivery route No. 6 from Salt Lake City be extended to include the establishment of a postoffice at Wells and mail route from Price to the proposed new office. Sutherland was today notified by Postmaster General Clegg that the request of men who use the Mantel reserve has been granted permitting lambing on the newly added area of the Mantel reserve, and that Supervisor Jensen has been ordered to report upon the question of modification of the order closing a one-mile strip in the reserve along the mountain summit from grazing. Sutherland today submitted to the war department the request of people living along the Price-Duchesne telephone line for opportunity to either lease or buy it rather than have it taken to the Philippines, as proposed by the government.

Miss Mildred Hansen of Salt Lake visited with friends in this city this week.

Miss Nellie Compton is visiting with her brother at San Francisco.

Dennis Murphy has returned from California and Nevada.

Mrs. George C. Graves spent last week with Captain and Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood of Salt Lake City.

Angus T. Wright spent the first part of the week in Salt Lake.

William J. Jones, who has been visiting with his family, left Wednesday for Winnemucca, Nev.

Mrs. A. G. Horn and Mrs. H. M. Rowe were Salt Lake visitors last week.

William J. Jones, who has been visiting with his family, left Wednesday for Winnemucca, Nev.

Mrs. Harrison and son, who were visiting in this city, left on Tuesday for Evanston, Wyo.

Mrs. John E. Quigley and Mrs. F. Gibson of Evanston, Wyo., were Ogden visitors on Wednesday.

Misses Mary and Helen Harrison of Evanston, Wyo., were Ogden visitors on Wednesday.

James Norton, division foreman at Evanston, Wyo., was an Ogden visitor last week.

L. W. Wardlaw and family have removed to Mina, Nev.

A very pleasant valentine party was given on Wednesday evening by Miss Goldie Fell.

Ortiz G. Randall, formerly of Ogden, but now of Seattle, is visiting with Mrs. J. W. Hendrickson of Collingston.

Miss Mary Kerwin has returned from Pocatello.

A wedding reception was tendered Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Sarah A. Randall of Farr West to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Randall, who were married Feb. 8 at Blackfoot, Idaho.

Joan Geddis of that place. The young people will make their home at Farr West.

Miss Minnie Brown of the University of Utah visited with friends here last week.

At J. S. Lewis is to entertain at cards at the Virginia on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. William Van Allen is to entertain a party of her friends at her home at the Pacific hotel on 10 o'clock on Saturday morning next.

Mrs. J. W. Hendrickson is to entertain the Canyon Campers club at the Broom hotel on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. N. McCarthy of Pocatello is visiting with friends here.

Joseph S. Peery left this afternoon for Los Angeles, and will be absent from the city for some time.

Mrs. Henry Bailey of Salt Lake is visiting with Mrs. Horace Peery.

The members of the Aclala are preparing a very pleasant party for Mrs. Peery.

Mrs. Nye was a guest of the club. An informal talk on famous French words was given by Mrs. Eichel.

The club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Sanborn.

Mrs. D. N. Smith will entertain the Home Culture club on Thursday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Ellen Garr of San Francisco is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Pardee.

Mrs. J. G. Langsdorf will entertain the friends of her church and the friends at a tea on the afternoon of Washington's birthday, at her home, 255 Adams avenue.

The Second Ward Dramatic club will present a four-act society drama entitled "The Evening of Washington's birthday."

Mrs. Stanley Johnson entertained Friday afternoon at her home on Lincoln avenue, in honor of Mrs. J. W. Smith, the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. E. M. Conroy entertained the S. O. E. club on Wednesday at her home on Twenty-fourth street.

The hosts had planned to entertain the young ladies who are members of this club at cards, but they were prevented by the weather and the club adjourned.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Condon left Tuesday for Los Angeles, and will be absent from the city for some time.

Mrs. D. H. Peery and Mrs. Horace E. Peery gave an informal party at the residence of Mrs. D. H. Peery, on Adams avenue, Wednesday afternoon, "hearts" was the order of the evening.

The affair was largely attended and very enjoyable.

Mrs. H. H. Henderson gave a valentine party on Wednesday evening at her home. The house had been prettily decorated with red primroses, and the chandeliers in each room hung hearts made of ferns and primroses.

"Hearts" was the game played, and the evening was won by Mrs. J. C. Armstrong. Mrs. D. H. Ensign and Mrs. George W. Perkins. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Mrs. E. M. Conroy entertained for her sister, Mrs. Broughton of California, on Wednesday.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose. Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better it is, not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking, eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectively clears and improves the complexion, and the beauty of the face.

Charcoal is a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the noxious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfests the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrhs.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal is that known as "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

Charcoal Lozenges, to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels and to clear the complexion and purify the blood, and the beauty of the face, is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, is a benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Sturges' Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels and to clear the complexion and purify the blood, and the beauty of the face, is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, is a benefit."

Friday afternoon. Euchre was the game, and was greatly enjoyed by all. The decorations were red, the tables being decorated with that color and carnations. After cards a dainty luncheon was served to the guests.

A very pleasant surprise party was given to C. Dora, at his home, 365 Twenty-second street, last Saturday evening. Cards were the principal feature of the evening's entertainment, after which supper was served. During the evening a complimentary musical programme was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hammon.

A banquet was given on Wednesday evening in Knights of Pythias hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Order of Railway Conductors, in honor of the visiting officers.

The fire fighters of the city at the fire station Wednesday evening by H. P. McCordie, an ex-fire fighter. The table was set up in the gymnasium, and was presided over by Chief Paine.

Mr. McCordie proved himself to be a generous host, and the table groined with good things, which the fire ladders made good work of. After the cigars had been reached speeches were made by a number of those present, and a pleasant hour spent.

A complimentary party was tendered to W. O. Ridges, superintendent of the state industrial school Sunday school, by the officers and members of the school.

The affair was greatly enjoyed by all present and was given as a mark of esteem for the services rendered by Ridges, who is associated with him in the Sunday school work at the school.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Mr. Ridges was given a heart party in honor of the seniors of that school, Wednesday evening. The occasion was a very pleasant one, and the guests were placed about the room and added greatly to the appearance of the attractive hall.

Plain Facts About the Hair.

IT IS THE DUTY of every one who is interested in hair preservation to learn enough about the subject to tell whether an advertisement for a hair remedy is reasonable or unreasonable. In this connection, the United States Postoffice department has begun a much-needed campaign against false and misleading statements in advertisements in general. While this work is highly commendable and should be greatly extended, still at the same time it tends to paternalism rather than to personal self-reliance. If YOU know that the claims for a hair remedy are unreasonable and untrue, that knowledge will save you money and prevent disappointment.

THE TROUBLE LIES in the fact that certain over-ambitious proprietors employ advertising writers who do not know the composition of the remedies they write about, and even if they did, they are not expected to know the therapeutic action of the various ingredients. Two very familiar and oft-repeated statements are that the hair must be watered and fed just like a plant, and that the color of the hair, once destroyed, can be restored by natural process. While both of these statements are false in every particular, it requires some little knowledge of the hair follicle to understand why the statements are false.

THE HAIR FOLLICLE is a pear-shaped sack in the scalp that holds the hair root. At the bottom of the hair follicle and extending up into it for a short distance is a nipple-shaped projection, the remains in the scalp when a hair root is forcibly pulled out. This projection is the hair papilla, from which the hair "root" grows. The continuous addition to the bottom of the hair root forces the hair proper out through the scalp.

THE HAIR PAPILLA is surrounded by the hair root, which thus takes a bulbous form. Above the hair root or bulb—which occupies about three-fourths of the entire follicle—is the neck of the hair follicle, below which the most penetrating fluids known to Medical Science cannot penetrate. Therefore, the story of feeding the starved and impoverished hair roots with an external application is all a myth.

THE SHORT PORTION of the hair follicle above the neck opens somewhat like a funnel and is filled with the outer scalp skin. Opening into this outer portion are the highly important oil or sebaceous glands, which, from their location, are most exposed to disease. When these oil glands become infected with a certain microbe growth (the cause of dandruff) there is hair disease and finally hair death. Fortunately this outer portion of the hair follicle can be treated by carefully rubbing into the scalp a suitable remedy. What remedy should be used? Manifestly one that will destroy the growth that causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE is the first remedy that was prepared for the particular purpose of destroying this invisible vegetable growth. In fact, it is called the "ORIGINAL" remedy that kills the dandruff germ. Newbro's Herpicide was not made until after Professor Umana of Hamburg, Germany (ask your doctor about him), discovered that dandruff is a highly contagious disease caused by a microbe. The almost marvelous success of Newbro's Herpicide has caused advertising writers to claim germicidal properties for other hair remedies, many of which were on the market years before Professor Umana's discovery.

DO YOU THINK that the new idea of using old remedies is a reasonable one? Remember, that the hair gets its life, color, and strength direct from the blood, and that good blood, deep breathing and sunlight favor hair development. Outdoor exercise, to insure free circulation in the scalp, also scalp massaging for the same purpose, are very helpful. Worry, indigestion, and sedentary habits oppose hair growth, while the dandruff germ will actually destroy the hair unless it is eradicated and kept out of the scalp with Newbro's Herpicide.

HERPICIDE is a delightfully cooling and refreshing to the scalp, and almost marvelous results result from its continued use. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

At Drug Stores—Send 10c in stamps to The Herpicide Company, Department N, Detroit, Michigan, for a sample.

Smith Drug Co., Special Agents.

NEW BOOKS FOR LIBRARY

Fiction, Children's Works and Miscellaneous Volumes Are Added.

The following forty-five books will be added to the public library Monday morning:

Miscellaneous.

Boyd—"Intermittent Thought."